

Obadiah

A young well spoken student from a Bible school was booked to speak at a church in an industrial town where most of the members worked in the local factories. He began his message like this:-

Friends, today I want to look with you at the prophet Obadiah. In fact I want to examine the prophet and look with you in detail at whether he really is minor prophet, as is commonly believed, or should we be regarding him amongst those whom we know to be of great Biblical rank such as Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel. So, in short, my friends, I want to put to you today this question “Where should we put Obadiah”. On hearing that, a man at the back got up, put on his cap and said “He can have my seat, I’m off!”

Well everyone, I’m not speaking on the prophet Obadiah today and so I hope you will stay while we look at.....
