

Can You Hear Me?

A visiting preacher known to be boring stood in the pulpit, put his face close to the microphone and said “Can everyone hear me at the back?” A quick witted individual at the back returned with the comment “Yes but I’d be pleased to swap seats with someone who can’t!”

Friends, I hope not to bore you today but, if you want to swap seats before I begin, this is your opportunity to do so.